3rd Annual Backpacks for Success Corporate Appreciation Dinner

Over the past 15 years, the Hundred Black Men of Madison, Inc. (100 BMM), a 100% volunteer, 501(c)(3) organization, has provided over 22,000 backpacks containing school supplies and books (at no charge) to area disadvantaged children at our annual Back-to-school Celebration for elementary and middle school students of all ethnicities and genders.

In preparation for the distribution of school supplies, the 3rd Annual 100 BMM Corporate Appreciation Dinner was held at the Kohl Center on Tuesday, 16 August 2011.

To a packed audience, partner organizations and individuals were recognized for their contributions to this community effort and to the Mission of the 100 Black Men of Madison. Among those bestowed recognition were Oscar Mayer Foods Corporation, Division of Kraft Foods; the University of Wisconsin-Madison Athletic Department; Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Kappa Psi Omega Chapter; Wisconsin National Guard; Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Madison Alumnae Chapter; Dr. Perry Henderson, originator of the Backpacks for Success activity; and Enis Ragland, Founder of the 100 Black Men of Madison.

Mingling, Mentoring and Mama's Treats

14 September 2011 - University of Wisconsin-Madison

Members of the African American professional community, local high school students, and university students and faculty of the University of Wisconsin are slated to attend Mingling, Mentoring and Mama's Treats on 14 September 2011.

This event offers an opportunity for social interaction and information sharing among a group of younger and older African American men with similar career interests. With the theme of "Intergenerational Mentoring," the goal of the 14 September activity is to initiate cross generational relationships.

The event will be held from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. at Grainger Hall on the campus of the University of Wisconsin-Madison. To register for the vent, please access
