Madison Students Place 4th in National Dollars and Sense Competition

The Dollars and Sense program provides area high school students with exposure and education on matters of personal finance. Students who demonstrate aptitude and dedication are chosen to represent our Chapter at the National Championship sponsored by 100 Black Men of America, Inc. and State Farm Insurance during the recently conducted Annual Conference in San Francisco, California. This year was our second year of participation on the national stage.

The level of competition was brisk, with over 23 Chapters from around the United States descending upon San Francisco, California, and vying for top honors. Proudly, the Madison team paired their unbridled enthusiasm with a firm grasp of financial concepts garnered during their weekly sessions with 100 Black Men of Madison. Our students performed admirably, delivering an 83% performance rating, which earned them a 4th place finish.

Hats off to LaFollette High School 11th graders, Jo'Nallie Wesley and Wayne "Junior" Coleman for their fine effort.

15th Annual Back-to-School Celebration

20 August 2011

In the past 14 years, the Hundred Black Men of Madison, Inc. (100 BMM), a 100% volunteer, 501(c)3 organization, has provided nearly 20,000 backpacks containing school supplies and books (at no charge) to area disadvantaged children at our annual Back-to-School Celebration for elementary and middle school students of all ethnicities and genders.

This year's Back-to-School Celebration will again be held at Demetral Park on Saturday, 20 August 2011. At this event, our goal is to encourage, motivate and share information and school materials with more than 2,500 at-risk students who are at or below the poverty level.

In preparation for the Saturday event, a Corporate Appreciation Dinner will be held at the Kohl Center on Tuesday, 16 August 2011, and a backpack stuffing party will be held on Thursday, 18 August 2011.

Volunteers are needed for all three activities.
