

WWOCN

Wisconsin Women of Color Network, Inc.
P.O. Box 2337, Madison, Wisconsin 53701-2337
Visit our website: www.womenofcolornetwork-wis.org

Contact
Agnes G. Cammer
P. O. Box 2337, Madison, WI 53701
(608) 249-8477

March 10, 2011

Press Release

2011 WISCONSIN WOMEN OF COLOR NETWORK, INC., CELEBRATES WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Madison, WI: The Wisconsin Women of Color Network, Inc., will celebrate Women's History Month on Saturday, March 26, 2011, 10:00 A.M.-2:30 P.M. at the Lower Level Cafeteria of the Madison (Area Technical) College, 3550 Anderson Street, Madison, WI 53704. The theme of the celebration is: "WOMEN OF COLOR: HONORING OUR PAST AND CHALLENGING OUR FUTURE".

WWOCN has invited women of color leaders in the Madison community who have blazed the trail for the advancement of the quality of our life to be featured speakers during the conference. They will speak on their life experience to achieve their goals and to provide enlightenment and inspiration to all women of color to be the best they can be now and in the future.

The speakers are: Milele Chikasa Anana, publisher of UMOJA Magazine; Ada Deer, nationally known Native American activist; Jan Miyasaki, Attorney and UW-Madison faculty member; and, Anita Herrera, Educator.

A Buffet Lunch will be served.

The public is invited but registration is required. Payment may be made at the door. Registration form is available on the WWOCN website: www.womenofcolornetwork-wis.org or call Addrena Squires (608) 257-1552 or E-mail Agnes G. Cammer at apicons@aol.com.

Deadline for reservation: March 21, 2011.

Cost: $20.00/Adults $10.00/Children under 12 years old